INTRODUCTION

With the companionship of Mediterranean Hope, the refugee and migrant programme of the Federation of Protestant Churches in Italy (FCEI), we will ask: how might we be radical communities of hope rooted in faith, in the midst of a migration crisis so bound up with climate chaos and war?

This event is open to Members and, for 2024 only, to Associate Members. Young adult associates and Members are particularly encouraged to attend.

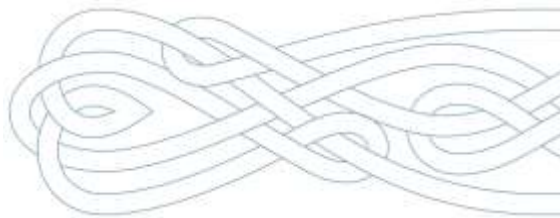

ACTIVITIES:

- Worship together
- Input and reflection from experts on our theme
- Small Groups threaded throughout the week to provide stability and a common 'home'
- Tours of the Monastery
- Time to hear 'Member Stories'
- Free time and time to enjoy Erfurt
- Day trips within the local community
- Living in community in the medieval monastery that was home to Martin Luther in the heart of southern Germany
- There will be various ways of connecting online during the week – more information to follow

PROGRAMME COMPANION:

We will be joined for the week by Fiona Kendall, Associate Member of the Iona Community living in Rome. Fiona working with Mediterranean Hope as their European and Legal Affairs Adviser. Fiona will offer input, inspiration and critical companionship on themes of:

- Borders and belonging
- What 'safe passage' for migrants actually means
- Migration and Exploitation: justice in the work place

A NOTE ABOUT LANGUAGE

While English will be the primary language of the week together, we will also be sensitive to the various language needs in our group. The planning group is exploring options including

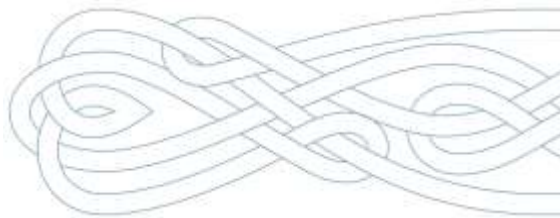

- Translation in advance of some key concepts and themes
- Multi-lingual worship
- Informal simultaneous translation as needed
- Single-language small groups
- Pre Community Week language tutorials

VISITING SISTER COMMUNITIES EN ROUTE

We are not alone as we live community. Gathered and scattered, our intentional community is very particular, but not unique. In 2022 the Iona Community joined Oikosnet Europe. Through this network of Lay Academies and Communities, we are strengthening our sense of solidarity across Europe with values-aligned communities and networks.

Wherever you are travelling from, you may want to take the opportunity to visit one of our sister communities on the continent of Europe either on the way to Erfurt, or on the way back. These include:

- Communaute de Grandchamp, Areuse, Switzerland
- Agape Centro Ecumenico, Torino, Italy
- Taize Community, near Cluny, France

- Oikosnet Europe – find out more about this network and discover more communities that you may like to visit this summer.

Community Week 2024 is open to Members and Associate Members of the Iona Community, including our Young Adult Members.
